

Uncovering Hidden Treasures at FamilySearch.org

The WVGS Library is now an affiliate library of FamilySearch. Learn to use this valuable free website, containing millions of images of original records from all over the world, including:

- Historical Records: Searching records tips, how to browse un-indexed records, and how to find out what records are available.
- FamilySearch Family Tree: Reasons for using Family Tree, entering data, adding sources, photos, documents, family stories, and more.
- Catalog: Find records that are not indexed and identify images that are not available at home but may be viewable at the WVGS Library.
- Books: How to find and reference them, why some are not available from home, and where to find those.
- Wiki and Learning Center: Online classes, locality references and why you need to use them, additional information such as foreign language word lists, and more...
