

Getting the Most from Ancestry.com

This class will focus on the differences between the Ancestry Library Edition (available at the WVGS Library) and personal paid subscriptions, as well as search strategies and "hidden" resources at Ancestry.com. We will discuss:

- the Ancestry Menu,
- Search techniques, including when and how to use Wild Card, Exact, and other search types,
- Ancestry Collections and Databases,
- How and when to use the Ancestry Card Catalog,
- Pros and cons of Ancestry Trees and the "little green leaf,"
- What to do when you think you've exhausted what's available on Ancestry.com.

This class will be geared to beginning and intermediate researchers, but more advanced participants should also find it useful. You may wish to bring your laptop or tablet, but it is not required.
